2024 ENVIRO CONFERENCE
26-27 JUNE 2024
BCEC, BRISBANE QLD

ABOUT THE 2024 ENVIRO CONFERENCE

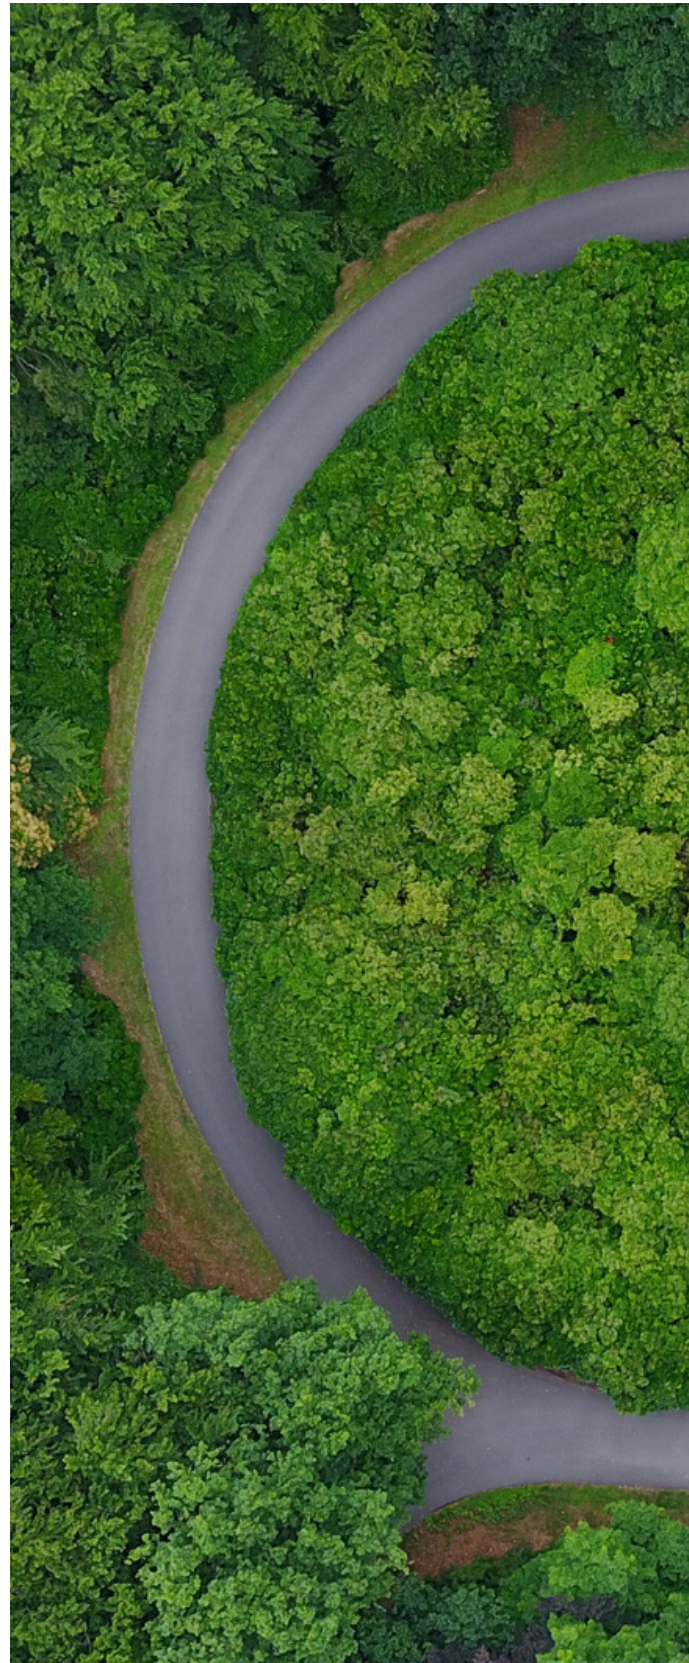

WMRR's national biennial ENVIRO Conference (#2024ENVIRO), will be held from the 26-27 June 2024 at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre (BCEC), South Brisbane, QLD.

With only 5.4% of materials across the country currently being repurposed or recycled, it is vital that all areas of industry, the community and government come together and play their part in transitioning Australia to a circular economy. We must be proactive at a local, state, and national level to ensure that the life and value of materials are maximised and carbon is minimised. It is time to challenge the status quo and talk openly about the need for responsible production and consumption – what does this look like in Australia and how do we accelerate action as we face real climate risk.

How we view and treat resources is key to this transition. To make real progress, we must deliver a fundamental shift across society to reduce the demand for raw materials, think differently about design, and encourage reuse and repair through responsible production and consumption.

The 2024 ENVIRO Conference will explore and discuss the systems thinking required to deliver this monumental shift, from the policy levers and regulatory framework required to drive circularity to the cultural shift needed.

The 2024 ENVIRO Conference will be of interest to environmental and sustainability experts, managers, regulators, local government councillors, state and federal government, consultants, service and technology providers, economists, planners, academics and engineers. Participants will have the opportunity to share their expertise and knowledge, showcase their innovative ideas, learn from industry experts and network with their industry peers.
