

2026 MEMBER BENEFITS

ABOUT US

WMRR is the national peak industry body, representing Australia's $17 billion waste and resource recovery (WARR) industry since 1992.

With more than 2,300 active members from over 400 companies, we represent the entire WARR industry, providing us with a unique and informed insight into the interdependencies, challenges faced and opportunities encountered by the industry as a whole and within each sector.

Our voice is trusted by government and regulators as an educated and representative authority when advocating for the advancement of industry, with a track record of proven outcomes.
